ANIMALS

i had a lovely evening,
but i don't think you
should come up tonight

it's because of my face, isn't it?!

you think i'm ugly!

NO...

when i see the
beauty that's inside,
you can come up

-kay, bye
